BROADWAY THEATER.
Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch.
English theatrical managers who saw the performance of Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch at the Savoy theater, New York, during its record run, declared that it was the greatest play ever produced. It is a play of the type, and gave not only many of the memories who saw the dramatization of Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, but also the play itself, a new and original character.

NEW INCORPORATIONS.

9,516 VESSELS
Landed Cargoes in Bridgeport Harbor During Past Year.
In his annual report to the common council, Harbormaster Charles H. Morris of Bridgeport reviews the commerce of the harbor for the past fiscal year, and it is an interesting document.

According to the report there were 9,516 vessels which arrived in the harbor during the past year.

Vaudeville at Broadway Theater Next Week.
The first result of the Jackson-Shedd theatrical coalition will be to bring to Norwich bigger and better vaudeville shows, and the opening of the spring season of Shedd's vaudeville at the Broadway theater next Monday is eagerly awaited.

The feature act for the initial week will be the Willard's Temple of Music, an overabundant novelty in the musical domain, and the opening of the spring season of Shedd's vaudeville at the Broadway theater next Monday is eagerly awaited.

The dramatic sketch will be before the play, presented by Margaret Keane and company, Miss Keane is well known here as the Miss Keane, and has been seen with the Charles K. Champlin company and others in leading roles, and her support includes Lorne Elwyn and Marion Calver. The scene of the play is said to be an actress' dressing room, and its story is said to be exceedingly dramatic.

Gardner and Golder, the sidewalk philosophers, clever parodists and conversational comedians, will be new faces here as well as the Miss Keane, and McNeil, a lively singing and dancing duo, Sandy Donaldson, a name implies, is a Scotch comedian, appearing in light and giving entertainment much after the style of Harry Lauder, his Highland songs and dances, and his rich Scotch humor being highly enjoyable. Moving pictures of the highest grade will be selected and presented by the latest improved machine and with appropriate effects.

The matinee will begin at 2.15. Evening shows will be continuous, beginning at 7.15. Admission 15c, box seats will be reserved for ten cents extra.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.
High Class Vaudeville and Pictures.
No one should miss seeing the Larry Sylvester, Jr., at the Auditorium this evening. He is a wonderful young man, and then does a little dance all his own and brings down the applause at every performance. He will be a special feature for the children's Saturday matinee.

In "Scintillas" Barnes and Lee have a very funny sketch, with many amusing situations, which make the audience forget all their worries and have one big laugh.

Maudie De Luca has a very neat, refined contortion act and in her finished and finished act, on her forehead, which she does while going through the hardest kind of gymnastic movements, is a winner.

A very original act, a Palace, the ventriloquist, who writes all his own act, which is a scream throughout. Especially is this the case of the clown when he closes his act, using four dummies and a dummy dog, all appearing speaking at once.

The pictures will be changed Thursday, and "The Assassination of the Duke De Guise" will be of special merit.

BREED THEATER.
"The Curtains Pole," Greatest Comedy Moving Picture in Existence.

A moving picture with the reputation of being the funniest one in the moving picture world. The funniest one in existence, is the one by the title of "The Curtains Pole." This picture has been shown in larger cities, where it has been the success of the evening, and is a wonder, in that it induces screams of laughter from start to finish because it is so fast and furious in its kaleidoscopic incidents. It is a story of a person starting out to purchase a horse, but not knowing the exact length, he brings it home uncut, making a pole some 20 feet long. From the time of the purchase to the time when he reaches the house, there is not an inch of him that does not carry a laugh with it. It is the greatest finish in the picture, for when the purchaser arrives at the house, he finds that they have purchased a pole in his absence and put it up, and no one seems to notice him, whereupon he, in a rage, bites the pole in two.

The rest of the big bill includes Tragic Love drama, Charlotte Corday, hand colored, Adventures of a Bag of Coal, Assassination of the Duke of Guise, and His Ward's Love, Madame Morelle and Mr. Delaney sing at every performance.

Passion Play at The Roderick.
Messrs. Silva and Brownell have been successful in being able to secure for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the Passion Play, or The Life of Christ. This magnificent production was shown for three days before at the Roderick, but as a matter of fact, it is a play of such merit that it will no doubt be well patronized.

Mr. O'Neill will again render that beautiful sacred song, The Holy City, and as all who hear him sing this song were well pleased it will be one of the features of the programme. All ladies and those who can are advised to attend the matinee performances and assure themselves of seats. On Saturday afternoon a beautiful Japanese Easter festival will be presented to each lady to the extent of 20c. No extra admission, five cents as usual.

Now that Major Guy R. Edie has been appointed physician and surgeon to President Taft, there are those who recall that Dr. Edie has become somewhat famous in Washington for his success in reducing the weight of prominent officers for whom President Roosevelt prescribed the riding tests.
